

West Michigan World Trade Association

World Trader of the Year Nomination

GENERAL SELECTION CRITERIA

- The World Trader of the Year Award can be presented to an individual, a business or an organization.
- If the nominee is a business, or an organization, the recipient must be located (but not necessarily headquartered) in the West Michigan area. They do not have to be a member of the WMWTA.
- Members of the WMWTA Board of Directors and their employers are not eligible for consideration for the award.
- Recipients of the award within the previous five years are not eligible for consideration.

INDIVIDUAL

If the award is presented to an INDIVIDUAL, the following will be considered in addition to the general selection criteria:

- A demonstrated commitment to a career involving international trade. A minimum of three years in international trade is required.
- A demonstrated willingness to share time and talent in promoting international trade. Items to be considered: participation in the World Trade Association, participation in international programs, writing articles on international trade, etc.
- Has demonstrated an interest in continuing to learn about international trade through continued training (i.e. attending international seminars).
- Actively promotes the purposes of the West Michigan World Trade Association and encourages new membership.

BUSINESS

If the award is presented to a BUSINESS, the following will be considered in addition to the general selection criteria:

- A demonstrated commitment to international trade and have a minimum of a five-year history in international trade.
- Must conduct business in several foreign countries (i.e. direct, licensee, subsidiary, dealer, joint venture).
- Any innovative approaches to international trade will be viewed positively, such as adapting a product to a specific market.
- Clearly demonstrated intentions to broaden its international trade.

ORGANIZATION

If the award is presented to an ORGANIZATION (e.g. government entity, learning institution, or nonprofit entity), the following will be considered in addition to the general selection criteria:

- A demonstrated commitment to international trade and have minimum of a three-year period that it has supported or promoted international trade.
- Support and promotion of international trade must be for a broad range of international trading partners.

2018

World Trader of the Year

- Deadline for nomination submissions is April 13, 2018
- The award will be presented during World Trade Week 2018.

For more information contact:

Rebecca Climie
PO Box 6785
Grand Rapids, MI 49516
616.301.0032
manager@wmwta.org

Application on line at www.wmwta.org

West Michigan World Trade Association

World Trader of the Year Nomination

The West Michigan World Trade Association [WMWTA] recognizes that international trade is a vital ingredient for this area's business growth and economic stability. Annually we recognize a business, organization or individual that has contributed to the growth of world trade in this region.

The WMWTA is now soliciting nominations for the 2018 World Trader of the Year. The deadline for nomination submissions is April 13, 2018. After receipt of the nominations, the WMWTA Board of Directors will select the recipient. The award will be presented during World Trade Week, May 2018.

Please consider nominating those individuals, businesses or organizations that you feel have made significant contributions to the growth of international trade in West Michigan. Criteria for the award are listed on the reverse side of this form. To see the previous year's award recipient please visit our website at www.wmwta.org. Multiple nominations are accepted.

I would like to nominate the following for 2018 World Trader of the Year

Name _____
Business _____
Address _____
City, State & Zip _____
Phone _____
Email _____
Contact Name _____

Please share your story on this outstanding nominee.

Submitted by: _____ Company: _____ Phone: _____
Email _____

Please email form to manager@wmwta.org or mail to WMWTA, PO Box 6785, Grand Rapids, MI 49516. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Rebecca Climie at 616.301.0032.